

Hope VI by Nambi E. Kelley
Directed by Ilesa Duncan

Hope VI tells the story of Hope Graves, 6, a high spirited and funny young girl who has become strangely quiet. Hope VI is the journey of her dream and her family's struggle to survive after the wrecking ball hits the Robert Taylor homes on Chicago's Southside.

Production runs May 29, 2009 - July 12, 2009

PREVIEWS: May 29, 30, June 4 - 8pm

OPENING NIGHT: June 5 & 6, 2009 at 8:00pm

REGULAR PERFORMANCES: Thursday - Saturday at 8:00pm; Sunday at 3:00pm

TICKET PRICES:

Preview Tickets - $15

Friday & Saturday - $30

Thursday & Sunday - $25

Student & Industry (Th. & Su. only) - $10

Teachers - $15 all performances

Turn your conference evaluation in at the end of the day, and be eligible for 2 tickets. One drawing held on Thursday and two on Friday. Must be present to win.

Chicago Dramatists is a professional theatre, dedicated to the development and advancement of playwrights and new plays. The primary goal is to discover, develop and promote the new plays and playwrights that will contribute to the established theatre repertoire, and enrich the lives of future theatre audiences.

For more information, visit www.chicagodramatists.org